

This cheerful yellow house on Oak Street near Laguna is a classic Queen Anne, with a round turret, asymmetrical façade, and a sunburst in the gable, but it has one unusual feature: a second-story veranda, matching the design of the porch below it.