

Nobby Clarke's folly, built in 1892 on what was originally a 15-acre plot on Douglass Street above Eureka Valley, cost $100,000, a princely sum for the time. The materials were the finest available, and the result simply defies description. The entrance doors (right) feature magnificent stained and etched glass panels. Despite all this luxury, Mrs. Clarke refused to live in the house.